

Eid Mubarak to all our muslim families. We will be holding our Eid party on Wednesday- please see your Eid party letter for details. This week the children will be watching videos about children celebrating Eid and we will be encouraging them to speak about special times for them and their families. At home you can share photos with them about special family events. We will also continue to explore The Very Hungry Caterpillar story. You can borrow the story from your local library such as Manningham library and explore the story online at
